President and Mrs. Wilson Ride in Park; Officers Hosts at Barracks

Informal Hop at Officers' Club Is Delightful Hospitality of Summer Season. Several Interesting Dinner Parties Are Given Mashington, as she spent the greater part of last winter here with her sister. Her marriage to Lieutenant Townsend was set for a month later, but his new orders caused the wedding date to be advanced. The ceremony will be quiet, with only relatives and a few close friends in attendance. Club Is Delightful Hospi-Preceding the Dance.

Another sidelight on the marriage ife of James I. Strobel and his wife life of James I. Strobel and his wife Katie Strobel, came to view, yesterday, when Mrs. Strobel, filed a cross-bill in answer to the suit for limited divorce, instituted by her husband. The wife charges her husband with unusually cruel and inhuman treatment, even to threatening her life with a loaded revolver.

After their marriage, in July of last year, the couple went to live at 374 Maryland avenue southwest where the wife's mother conducted a boarding house. In the husband's bill of complaint, he charges that his wife refused to leave her mother and live with him.

Mrs. Strobel states that her husband mrs. Strobel states that her husband knew when he married her that she would not leave her invalid mother. He called her a "great big cry baby," she states, when she cried because he struck her in the mouth with his fist. Strobel is employed in the navy yard.

Will the German Upheaval Break the Kaiser's Yoke?

The Imperial Government is now on the defensive at home, and is compelled to deal in concrete fashion with the growing dissatisfaction of the German people," is a significant fact that stands out clearly and distinctly in the opinion of the New York World. Nevertheless, in the minds of other cautious American editors, we are warned not to expect too much from the crisis in Berlin, for Germany is not Russia, nor is Wilhelm a Nicholas. The Boston News Bureau, however, perceives that whereas in the early days of the war, "all was vaunted political unanimity in the Fatherland," to-day, "the vast change in the military setting has its counterpart in the political transformation. Disillusion has brought dissension; confidence has given way to criticism; lines of faction are deeper than ever, over grave issues of war aims and war conduct." Vorwaerts, the German Socialist organ, in a warning to the German Government, remarks,

'let none be blind to the fact that at this time a certain unrest is spreading throughout the nation.' In THE LITERARY DIGEST for July 21st, the leading article shows every angle of the significant developments that have been taking place in Berlin during the past few weeks, and the influence that they will exert upon the conduct of the war.
